Terranova is Popping on Lincoln Road

MIAMI BEACH, FL – December 7, 2016 – With the holidays quickly approaching, brands are “popping up” all along Lincoln Road. Terranova recently signed three new short-term deals on the world famous retail street.

- Cap'n Crunch has landed in Miami Beach in the form of a 2,966 square foot pop-up shop at 721 Lincoln Road. The Kith x Cap'n Crunch store, a partnership between the cereal brand and the New York-based cereal bar, Kith Treats offers both food and limited edition Cap'n-Crunch apparel.
- Kiwi Arts Group opened a 2,668 square foot gallery at 737 Lincoln Road to showcase American photographer William John Kennedy's historic collection of Andy Warhol and Robert Indiana photographs during Art Basel through January 5th.
- Daniel Wellington, a minimalistic elegant watch boutique, opened at 608 Lincoln Road. This 6-month, 748 square foot pop-up is part of the international brand's U.S. launch, and adds timeless and classic style to the mix on Lincoln Road.

“These pop-ups bring excitement and diversity to Lincoln Road retail, and provide valuable opportunities for unique, emerging brands, like these,” says Terranova Executive Vice President Mindy McIlroy. Both McIlroy and Terranova Commercial Associate Vanessa Francis represented the landlord in the deals.
